

Everyone is concerned about security these days, but at ASIS International, the preeminent organization for security professionals, we know it's more than a concern to you — it's your number one responsibility. Helping you excel in the security industry is ours.

FOR NEARLY 50 YEARS, security management professionals around the world have turned to ASIS International (ASIS) for knowledge, professional development, and networking opportunities. With more than 33,000 members and growing daily, ASIS is the leading organization for security professionals. We aggregate the information and resources you need so you can focus on the job at hand — and, stay one step ahead of the curve.

At ASIS, we are dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programs and materials that address broad security interests, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities, and the public. Our range of expertise and services is broad, but our vision is simple: advancing security worldwide.

Our 33,000+ members aren't just an impressive number — they are the strength of our society. Together, they possess unparalleled expertise in the security industry to tackle today's toughest security challenges. And all have one thing in common: ASIS International. Our members' dedication and commitment to advancing the security profession make ASIS the leader in the industry.

Only ASIS brings you experience and expertise in all aspects of security management:

- asset protection
 - terrorism
 - security management
 - loss prevention
 - access control
 - global security
 - physical security
 - school security
 - training/management
 - information technology
 - emergency planning
 - investigations
 - workplace violence
 - disaster management
 - executive protection
 - industry specific topics
- ...and more.

TEN REASONS YOU BENEFIT FROM BECOMING AN ASIS INTERNATIONAL MEMBER

- 1. Unrivaled networking opportunities with more than 33,000 of your industry peers.
- 2. Up-to-date information, including industry best practices, new technologies, and emerging trends.
- 3. Complimentary subscription to Security Management magazine, the leading security industry publication.
- 4. Opportunities to build a professional reputation and credentials.
- 5. Tailored professional development programs to fit your specific career goals.
- 6. Advocacy of the security industry to the government and business communities.
- 7. Board-certified, professional designations.
- 8. Members-only access to new career opportunities in security management.
- 9. Access to more than 300 peer-reviewed, security-related publications.
- 10. Discounts on program and Seminar registration, merchandise, and certification programs.

ONE GOAL...YOUR SUCCESS IN THE SECURITY PROFESSION

4 CORE THEMES...A MULTITUDE OF BENEFITS

Unrivaled Networking Opportunities

Directory of Members Locate your colleagues in the security profession – anywhere, anytime. The ASIS Dynamics membership directory allows you to access other members around the world, by name, organization, or location. Available in hard copy or online at www.asisonline.org.

Special Interest Councils Join one or more of our 34 special interest councils and take part in the debate on emerging issues shaping the future of security management. Councils focus on subject matter ranging from theft of proprietary information and disaster management, to financial services and physical security.

Up-to-date Information

Security Management Magazine Discover what business executives call their best resource on security trends: ASIS International's Security Management magazine. Written by leading experts and professionals in the security industry, this monthly magazine features in-depth analysis on industry challenges, insight into new research, and a candid look at the people leading the industry. ASIS members receive a complimentary subscription to Security Management.

ASIS Security Industry Buyers Guide Make smart buying decisions for your company with this valuable sourcebook of products and services. The Buyers Guide — available to ASIS members online and in print — helps you compare products and locate industry experts.

O.P. Norton Information Resources Center (IRC) Tap into the greatest single source of security-related information, including the largest collection of security publications, online databases, video-tapes, research, and more. Our team of reference librarians at the IRC can help you zero in on just what you need.

Chapter Involvement Get linked to what's happening in the security arena in your region through one of 200 ASIS International chapters around the world. Chapters organize programs focused on local and regional issues, and provide valuable professional connections.

Education Conferences Discover the best place to network with your colleagues in the security field — ASIS professional development programs, the Annual Seminar and Exhibits, and our annual European Conference. There's simply no better place to share insights and concerns about common challenges, new ideas, and emerging opportunities in the security industry.

ASISOnline For the latest industry information, log onto www.asisonline.org. In addition to facts and information, the site's members-only section features job listings, E-mail forums, Q&As, publication resources, and access to our complete Dynamics membership directory.

Dynamics Keep in-the-know about what ASIS is doing on your behalf at the local, regional, national, and international levels with our bi-monthly membership newsletter.

ASIS Bookstore Receive discounts on more than 300 peer-reviewed and recommended publications, CDs, tapes, and other merchandise through the ASIS Bookstore.

Employment Resource Service (ERS) Discover new management-level positions in the security industry or locate qualified security management practitioners to fill positions at your company through our Employment Resource Service (ERS). ERS is the most comprehensive, online, up-to-date career resource of its kind — and, the position openings are accessible only to ASIS members!

Who Can Join ASIS International?

In today's environment, security issues impact organizations at all levels... worldwide. Anyone whose responsibilities include the management of security should be a member of ASIS International. Anyone who is concerned about security can be a member.

Our diverse membership ranges from security professionals, financial managers, attorneys, and corporate executives, to law enforcement professionals, military personnel, consultants, and others with a vested interest in security issues.

Classes of Membership

Members

Professionals in an executive, managerial, supervisory, or responsible charge position who are primarily responsible for the security function of their organization.

Associates

Individuals with a professional interest in security, seeking the professional development benefits provided by membership in ASIS International.

Student members

Full-time students actively pursuing a security-related degree, taking at least nine undergraduate or six graduate credit hours at a duly-accredited college or university. Note: student memberships are not available to those who would otherwise qualify for Member status.

This is a challenging period for security professionals.

There has never been a more important time for you to stay on top of your profession, to network with your peers, and to keep abreast of changes and trends in the industry.

The best way to do that is to join ASIS International. Your membership is a potent tool you will use to help make our Society more visible and integral to the industry and to assure your professional career development.

Whatever your level of experience, your membership in ASIS will help you define your role in the security field.

Join today.

It's the best investment you will make in your career.

www.asisonline.org

Opportunities to Build a Reputation and Credentials

Leadership Potential Develop your own career network through involvement in a variety of ASIS programs. Whether it's participating in one of more than 200 regional chapters around the world, serving on one of our special interest councils, or simply volunteering your expertise through other activities, ASIS provides a unique opportunity to connect with security professionals at the top of their businesses and improve your leadership skills within the industry.

Certified Protection Professional Designation (CPP) Advance your career goals through professional certification. Our Certified Protection Professional (CPP) designation — administered by ASIS for more than 25 years — is the security industry's highest recognition of practitioners. The CPP designation is awarded based upon career experience and passage of an examination that tests broad-based security knowledge and competency in security management. It is evidence that you are "Board Certified in Security Management."

Professional Certified Investigator (PCI) and Physical Security Professional (PSP) Designations

Seek professional certification in two new Board Certified areas through ASIS. The Professional Certified Investigator (PCI) designation helps employers identify those whose primary responsibility is to conduct investigations. The Physical Security Professional (PSP) designation is awarded to persons whose primary responsibility is to conduct threat surveys; design integrated security systems that include equipment, procedures, and people; or install, operate, and maintain those systems.

Professional Development and Education Programs

Annual Seminar and Exhibits

Join more than 17,000 of your peers from around the world to discover new technology and to learn the latest about security issues, trends, and best practices at the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits. With 135-plus professional development sessions and more than 800 exhibitors, it's the most comprehensive networking and educational event in the security industry. And, as always, ASIS members enjoy discounted registration.

Annual European Conference

Tackle some of the most timely and complex issues facing the global business community at the ASIS European Conference. This event provides a comprehensive perspective and fresh approaches to the security challenges faced by security practitioners in a global economy.

ASIS Professional Development

Secure your continuing education at more than 30 different ASIS classroom programs. From one-day intensive programs focusing on a single topic, to in-depth courses covering all aspects of security management, our classroom programs are tailored to fit your specific professional goals. As an ASIS member, you'll receive substantial discounts on programs, which often exceed your total annual dues.

ASIS education also goes far beyond the classroom to include an array of offerings that enable you to choose the delivery method that works the best for you—whether self-study, e-learning, Virtual Forums, or university degree partnerships via distance learning. We'll even bring our programs to your workplace—an ideal solution for organizations that need training for a small team or a whole department.